

Attractions Guide – Guilin

Duxiu Feng (Solitary Beauty Peak)

Located in Jingjiang Prince City, a 5A Tourist Attraction of China, Duxiu Feng is praised as the "Southern Sky Pillar" and regarded as the number one peak in Guilin. The mountain top has the best viewing platform for a panoramic view of Guilin City. A stone on the cliff is engraved with the historic famous saying, "Guilin landscape is the best in the world".

Address:

1 Wangcheng Road, Xiufeng District, Guilin

Transportation:

From High Speed Rail Guilinxi Station, take Bus 22, get off at Shizi Street (Jiefang West Road) Station and walk for about 10 minutes.

Elephant Trunk Hill

A 4A Tourist Attraction of China, located in the Elephant Hill Scenic Area, the Elephant Trunk Hill is composed of pure limestone from seabed sediments of 300 million years ago. The hill is named after its resemblance of an elephant drinking water and is depicted as the central part of Guilin's city emblem. In addition to the scenery of the hill, there are more scenic tourist hotspots in the area, such as Water Moon Cave, Elephant Eye Cave and Love Island.

Address:

Elephant Hill Scenic Area, 1 Binjiang Road, Xiangshan District, Guilin

Transportation:

From High Speed Rail Guilinxi Station, take Bus 22, get off at Ximenqiao Station and walk for about 15 minutes.

Two Rivers and Four Lakes

A 5A Tourist Attraction of China, the area consists of Li River, Taohua River, Mulong Lake, Gui Lake, Rong Lake and Shan Lake. The beauty of the water system around the city attracts the attention of all visitors. Take a boat trip on the lake during the day, while enjoy the magnificent gold and silver lights of the Sun Tower and the Moon Tower at night. Both towers each has its own characteristics. The Sun Tower is 41 metres high with nine levels, decorated with 350 tons of pure copper. It is known as the world's highest copper tower and tower in water. The Moon Tower is 35 metres high with seven levels and is made of glass.

Address:

Riyuewan Pier, Shanhu North Road, Xiufeng District, Guilin

Transportation:

From High Speed Rail Guilinxi Station, take Bus 22, change to Bus 100 at Guanying Station, get off at Yangqiao Station and walk for about 7 minutes.

Lujia Village

"Autumn Moon on Taohua River (Anciently named as Yangjiang)", one of Guilin's "Old Eight Views", refers to Lujia Village. The village is built alongside mountains and water. The houses consist of slopped roofs, small blue tiles, grillwork windows, white-painted walls and blue slates, unique in style and perfect for photos and checking out. There are also boutique hotels, homestays and various small shops in the village to cater to the needs of tourists. In addition to farmhouse dishes, the village is also known for its handmade tofu.

Address:

Lujia Village, Taohuajiang Road, Xiufeng District, Guilin

Transportation:

From High Speed Rail Guilinxi Station take Bus 22, change to Bus 213 at Lize Station, get off at Lujia Village Station and walk for about 7 minutes.

Zhengyang Pedestrian Street

The 666-metre-long pedestrian street boasts numerous restaurants and shops, offering many classic snacks from Guilin. Its proximity to Prince City, Elephant Trunk Hill and Solitary Beauty Peak makes it the best stop for a rest after a long day of sightseeing.

Address:

Zhengyang Pedestrian Street, Xiufeng District, Guilin

Transportation:

From High Speed Rail Guilinxi Station, take Bus 22, get off at Shizi Street (Jiefang West Road) Station and walk for 14 minutes.