

Attractions Guide – Humen

Opium War Museum

With permanent exhibitions including "The Story of Humen", "Destruction of Opium at Humen" and "The Opium War", the Opium War Museum details the story of the Opium War with many precious historical artefacts on display. This is the site where Lin Zexu destroyed the opium, making it a perfect venue for visitors to learn more about modern Chinese history. In addition, visitors can get an even greater and comprehensive understanding of the war history by visiting the nearby Sea Battle Museum, Weiyuan Fort and Shajiao Fort.

Address:

113 Jiefang Road, Humen Town, Dongguan

Transportation:

From High Speed Rail Humen Station, take Bus 265, get off at Zhenkou Juweihui Station and walk for about 13 minutes.

Qifeng Park

Qifeng Park is home to Huangqi Mountain, a symbol of Dongguan that rises 189 metres above sea level. The mountain derived its name from its "waving flag" appearance and "The Hanging Lantern at the Peak of Huangqi Mountain" was referred to as one of the Eight Sceneries of Dongguan in folklore. Other 'must-see' attractions at Qifeng Park include the Ancient Goddess of Mercy Temple and Huangling Temple.

Address:

2 Dongcheng Zhong Road, Dongguan

Transportation:

From High Speed Rail Humen Station, take Metro Line 2, get off at Qifeng Park Station and walk for about 6 minutes.

Keyuan Garden

Regarded as one of the Four Renowned Gardens of Guangdong from the Qing Dynasty, Keyuan Garden represents the Lingnan garden architecture. It was built in 30th year of Daoguang Reign of the Qing Dynasty. Despite of its limited space, Keyuan showcases ponds and bridges, pavilions as well as terraces. It has combined residence, living area, villas, yards, gardens and study halls together skillfully. The unique Southern architectural style of Keyuan Garden makes it one of the finest gardens in Guangdong.

Address:

32 Keyuan Road, Guancheng District, Dongguan

Transportation:

From High Speed Rail Humen Station, take Metro Line 2, get off at Hongfu Road Station, walk to Civil Service Center Bus Station, change to Bus 58, get off at Keyuan Station and walk for about 1 minute.